

October brings trips, entertainment, and spooks

Boo was here and gone before we could blink an eye, so as we move into November we stop to reflect and prepare ourselves for Thanksgiving—a time of celebration for bountiful harvest and a time to spend with loved ones.

By the time you receive this newsletter, Halloween will have passed. Gardenside, with the support of many departments and individuals throughout the JCH&L family was able to have a haunted garden to kind of “scare the candy out of them” if you catch my drift. A big shout out to many who donated to help us purchase some decorations: Cindy Schoenholz, Nicki DeFrain, Kris Huss, Julie Dean, Kim Shaddock, Anna Schmidt, Trena Rogge, Jasmine Schwisow, Dianne Wagoner, Audry Sinn, and Marci Gillham. Thanks to all who worked behind the scenes, and all who brought in scary items to help with preparation. The staff did a great job on the haunted hallway doors. As of this writing, we are hoping to have lots of ghosts and goblins visit the Haunted Hallway, grab some candy in the safe place, and then venture through the Haunted Garden if they dare. We are planning to scare!

Gardenside welcomed two new entertainers this month. Mr. Memories, Joe Taylor, had all in the palm of his hand with his velvet voice as he sang everyone through the Crooners of old. Dan Reynolds brought his Neil Diamond voice for all to hear and enjoy. We look forward to having both back. Great job, gentlemen!

Gardenside took a couple of trips through the Kumpf Pumpkin Patch, Rock Creek Station and Crystal Springs.

Residents enjoyed attending as Fairbury Community Concerts brought a very entertaining group celebrating The Beatles. All enjoyed the music of the iconic band.

November will bring two more new entertainers to Gardenside—Billy Troy, whose father was a very decorated bluegrass player, and Ben Tomasello.

Stay tuned for information on Gardenside’s Christmas Extravaganza. I think you’ll like it! Here’s a hint: Bobby Gadoury will be our entertainment. More Details to come!

Be sure to see our next newsletter for some Halloween and Trick or Treat photos!

Holidays are coming!

As holidays approach we remind you that if the residents want to put up decorations in their rooms, the decorations need to be sprayed with fire retardant. The activities department has the spray available.

We also remind you that we request that nothing be hung on the walls without prior permission, since we just painted rooms.

Remember to watch while entering and exiting so Pearl doesn't follow you out (or find her way out while you are coming in.) We are encouraging everyone to tell Pearl to sit and stay when she is near the door and you are entering or leaving. She is learning, but remember it is a process and needs a lot of reinforcement for a puppy!

Results of the most recent state survey are available on the east side of the wall by the Activity Room. Nurse staffing hours are posted west of the nurses station.
