

May Filled With Fun Activities

By Nate Behrends
Evening Activity Coordinator

Dale Maatsch, Ruth Hull and Lois Wrigley prepare to cheer on the Derby races in their decorated hats.

May was very busy here at Gardenside. May Baskets were made with love and delivered. Kentucky Derby Day Hats were decorated and worn for Gardenside Downs version of the famous horse race. The Chengs returned and brought their talents to perform and tell stories through the songs so masterfully played.

Nursing Home week brought many events wrapped around the nostalgia of radio theme. Thank you to Norris and Jan Gold, Tom Blobaum, Bill Harris, and Arbor State Pharmacy for the radios we displayed for the week. We painted rocks for the courtyard and entrance. Local radio personality Trevor Steinmeyer came and spoke about radio. Dan Reynolds returned to perform, and did an excellent job putting the crowd in his hands and singing everyone a memory or two. We had a happy hour and celebrated a wedding anniversary milestone of 61 years. And we finished Nursing Home week with a big car show bringing in 29 vehicles: old, fancy, new, souped up. The Nostalgia of Cars show was a fun event with a chance of showers looming all day—but they held off until after the show. Thanks to all of the staff from JCH&L and Heritage care center for making the show a success. We especially appreciate our Facilities staff, nutrition services, and Wayne for his planning and oversight of the event. The smiles on the residents' faces are proof of a job well done. (See more on the show on page ____.)

A couple of bus trips to Crystal Springs let the riders aboard check out the new arrivals: fuzzy goslings and new playground equipment.

In May we celebrated birthdays of Norris Gold, Lois Wrigley, Carol Hart, Beverly Leseberg and Rolla Heller.

June promises to be just as fun and busy. Mike McCracken will return to entertain. The Gypsy Cowgirl will return with her folklore tales told through her songs as she makes her annual trek through Nebraska. She will also be at the Gage County Fair. Mary Link returns—solo this time as the other half of her previous duo has retired. We will also have other fun activities such as Coffee with Kitty. If anyone would like to come and enjoy our entertainment, let us know. Dates are on the Gardenside calendar (in this newsletter and on the web at JCHHealthandLife.org/locations/Gardenside and look for View Upcoming Activities.

Until next time!

Billing update

We appreciate your patience as we continue to work out the billing system in our new software.

If you do not have a balance from March, you will receive a bill from our new Cerner system. It will still come from JCH&L. With the new bills you will not receive a separate bill for pharmacy, phone, beautician services, etc. It will all be on the one Cerner bill. If you have a balance from March or prior, you will still receive a bill from American Health Tech, in addition to the Cerner bill. They will come in the same envelope. If you have questions please call the JCH&L business office at 402-729-3351, extension 5001.

Very Special Occasions Celebrated

Gardenside staff love to help our residents and their families celebrate special occasions. We've had several really special celebrations in the past month or so.

At left, Darlene Keuten's family help her celebrate her 100th birthday at the end of April.

At right, Norris Gold's family helped him celebrate his ____ birthday in May.

At left, Mike Slater and his wife, Jan, celebrated their 61st anniversary with us in May. They were married May 17, 1963.
