

READY FOR A CAREER AS A HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONAL?

Apprenticeship Program Available at JCH&L

JCH&L is currently seeking apprentices for careers in nursing, radiology, laboratory, speech therapy, and possibly other health care careers. For those accepted into the program and completing courses toward a degree, JCH&L will cover up to 100% of school tuition, books and fees after other scholarships are applied.

A mentor will be provided to the apprentice through JCH&L. The mentor will be current JCH&L employee in the apprentice's field of study. If an apprentice is in need of additional help a tutor will be arranged with the school.

Who is eligible?

- Those who have graduated from or will be graduating from high school or have their GED
- Interest in health care career
- Have interest in helping others, being a team player and working at JCH&L Fairbury
- Our goal is to "grow our own" in much-needed areas in health care.
